Hiring and renting safely with TOGA HIRE CENTRES

Toga Hire Centres has recently been re-awarded the prestigious Hire and Rental SafeHire Certification quality mark. This highly sought after award is the industry benchmark which covers all aspects of safe hire and rental and is annually reviewed to ensure the highest possible standards are adhered to.

The company, which supplies tools and plant for hire and sale to customers across Greater London and the home counties, had to undergo a rigorous inspection which included a long and detailed check that their operation met stringent Safety and Quality criteria.

These checks included ensuring compliance under:
Health and Safety Law
Consumer Protection Law
and Environmental Protection Law

The Hire and Rental - SafeHire Certification scheme is operated by Hire Association Europe, the internationally recognised leading body for the development of the hire and rental industry.

"This certification ensures that Toga Hire Centres are fully committed to looking after their customers by having safe equipment available for hire or rent" said Hire Association Europe Managing Director, Graham Arundell.

"Our independent Hire and Rental - SafeHire Certification assessors have carried out a detailed examination of their operations including a review of the servicing and testing procedures implemented to make sure that all equipment is safe before it is hired.

"They have also checked to ensure that all customers are provided with proper safety instructions. In addition, throughout the certification period, we employ a number 'Mystery Customers' who visit at random to ensure that these high standards are being maintained."

Toga MD "Delighted"

After receiving the prestigious safety and quality mark award, TOGA Managing Director Russell Gould commented: "It is a great achievement to receive the award again. It's true recognition for the efforts and hard work of our staff who are, like me, delighted that we have been recognised as being a truly outstanding professional hire and rental company.

"We are looking forward to continuing to offer our customers a great service and very competitive rates, but they can also be assured of the highest standards in Safety and Quality."
